Code of conduct

Our code is derived from the values and standards set by our customers, the United Nations, more particularly the Declaration of Human Rights and many of the ILO core conventions and local LAW.

- It will be our earnest endeavour to meet all the aspects of our buyers' code of conduct. We will only work with such factories which are approved by our buyers.
- Child labor: Use of Child labor will not be tolerated. We will not work with such business partners who employ workers lesser than 15 years of age. Further, no worker shall be younger than the mandatory school going age in the respective countries of operation. If the local law stipulates a higher minimum age than 15 years, then the more stringent limit shall be applicable.
- Forced labor: We will not work with any factory or organization which engages in forced or bonded labour.
- Disciplinary practices: We expect all our business partners to establish a clear disciplinary action procedure in line with the local law. We will not work with factories whose employees use abusive language, or practice corporal punishment, in the form of mental or physical abuse or any coercive practice in any form against workers.

OUR SERVICES

Sourcing & Merchandising

Leading the fashion sector in merchandising, our team works nonstop to close the gap between our customers and producers. Every product is made to be in line with the most recent market trends, customer preferences, and quality requirements. Our merchandisers oversee the entire process, from the first design concepts to the last delivery, making sure that manufacturing is completed on schedule and that client specifications are followed.

Research & Development

We work with renowned garment manufacturers in Bangladesh. Our communication & commitment toward our customers and factories makes us special from others. We have a good team of merchandisers to serve the best service with commitment & solution.

We never compromise on quality, our dedicated quality team is always on duty to deliver best quality goods to store that represent us to all the individual customer that buy garments from store.

Competence

Our strength is in our extensive industry knowledge, competent team, and ability to adapt to the changing demands of the apparel business. Kleider Sourcing Ltd. continuously delivers high-quality products by combining technical expertise, new techniques, and a deep awareness of market trends. Our team's significant experience and commitment to excellence allow us to solve complex challenges with precision and efficiency, guaranteeing that we consistently exceed client expectations.

QA & Production Control

Quality is the foundation of everything we do. Our Quality Assurance (QA) and Quality Control (QC) departments are committed to upholding the highest standards at all stages of manufacturing. Through rigorous inspections and testing, we ensure that each garment not only meets, but exceeds, our clients' expectations. Our dedication to quality is steadfast, and our QA/QC staff work tirelessly to maintain our reputation for excellence.
